

CAMPUS SAFETY WEEK 2025 AGENDA

Monday, Sept. 15

10 a.m. – Noon SSTC-200	ALICE Training The Gallup Police Department will provide practical steps in an Active Shooter situation to increase survival by encouraging awareness, communication, and proactive decision-making, rather than relying solely on lockdown.
2:30 p.m. – 3:30 p.m. SSTC-200	Campus Office Safety Join us for an open discussion on safety in your personal office space and within your office suite. Are you prepared with a plan in case of an emergency? This event is open to all who wish to attend.
4 p.m. - 5 p.m. Gymnasium	Personal Safety Training Join UNM-Gallup martial arts instructor Frank Sanchez to learn how to defend yourself. Dress in comfortable workout clothes and come ready to practice real-world self-defense. Please bring a hoodie or crew neck sweatshirt with you. This event is open to all who wish to attend.

Tuesday, Sept. 16

9:30 a.m. - 11:30 a.m. SSTC-200	Campus Safety Forum Join us for a moderated, panel discussion with campus PD, local law and fire agencies to discuss emergency response and safety topics. The following agencies will have representation: UNM-Gallup Police, City of Gallup Police & Fire, McKinley County Sheriff & Fire, Metro Dispatch, and McKinley County Emergency Management. Student Activities will sponsor “Coffee with a Cop” during this event.
6:30 p.m. Campus Police in Gurley Hall Commons	Campus Safety Walk Join your fellow Lobos for the Campus Safety Walk to help make UNM-Gallup a safer, healthier place. This is a great opportunity to get some steps in after dark with other Lobos. We’ll be counting on you to help identify areas in need of better lighting, pruning, and more. Sponsored by UNM-Gallup Staff Council.

Wednesday, Sept. 17
2 p.m. – 4 p.m. SSTC-200	ALICE Training The Gallup Police Department will provide practical steps in an Active Shooter situation to increase survival by encouraging awareness, communication, and proactive decision-making, rather than relying solely on lockdown.
Thursday, Sept. 18
9 a.m. - 10 a.m. SSTC-200	Narcan & Hands Only CPR Training Learn how to administer this simple nasal spray to help a person experiencing a drug overdose with training led by UNM-Gallup EMS instructor Jacob LaCroix. You will also learn how to administer hands-only CPR and utilize campus AED machines. This event is open to all who wish to attend.
10 a.m. – 2 p.m. Gurley Hall Commons	Safety Fair Connect with local public safety agencies and learn about the resources they have to offer.
Friday, Sept. 19
10:30 a.m. – Noon SSTC-200	Building Coordinator Training & Meeting Mandatory, annual training for Building Coordinators who are campus employees that work in regularly occupied campus buildings and serve to perform essential activities for the purpose of minimizing injury to campus students, staff, and faculty in the event of an emergency.
Noon - 1 p.m. SSTC-200	Hands Only CPR/AED & Narcan Training Learn how to administer hands-only CPR and utilize campus AED machines with training led by UNM-Gallup EMS instructor Jacob LaCroix. You will also learn how to administer Narcan, a simple nasal spray to help a person experiencing a drug overdose. This event is open to all who wish to attend.