ADMISSION

ADMISSION IN COMPETITIVE

- We do not admit or have classes in the summer
- The students that have the higher test scores and higher GPA (pre-requisite cumulative and pre-requisite science) are at the top of the list
- Too many C's will hurt your chances to get in
- We encourage A's and B's in the pre-requisite courses that factor into the pre-requisite GPA

ENTRANCE EXAM

- UNM-Gallup Nursing Program uses the ATI TEAS
- The ATI TEAS tests:
 - Reading
 - Science
 - Math
 - English and Language Usage
- The minimum passing score is:
 - Reading: $\geq 69\%$
 - Science: $\geq 52\%$
 - Composite: $\geq 58.7\%$
- UNM-Gallup administers the ATI TEAS each semester (Fall, Spring). Students who are ready to apply for the immediate following semester may take it at UNM-G. Students are cleared to test by the Student Success Specialist.

SELECTION TOOL

- UNM-G Nursing Program uses a point system to select up to 8 Bachelor Degree seeking students
- 100 application points possible
- The closer you get to 100 points, the higher chance you have at getting in
 - Be a point monster!
- The higher your test score and pre-requisite grades, the more points you get
- There are 3 sections that you earn points in:
 - ATITEAS score
 - Pre-requisite cumulative GPA
 - Completion of additional courses before you apply

- These courses are NOT pre-requisite courses! You do not have to complete them before you apply.

FINAL SELECTION OF NURSING STUDENTS

TOTAL POINTS EARNED

- If you have met all the application requirements, you will be invited to apply.
 - Completion of all 57 pre-requisite credit hours, pre-requisite GPA of 2.75, and passing TEAS scores
- You will apply to UNM College of Nursing BSN through the online CAS application online platform. An admissions advisor from UNM College of Nursing will contact you with the web link and instructions.
- You will apply to UNM-Gallup Branch as an Associate Degree Student/Dual Degree BSN. The Student Success Specialist will send you a paper application form.
- Both UNM-Gallup and UNM College of Nursing will evaluate your application using the points you earned.
- The 8 applicants with the most application points will be admitted.
- Up to 2 alternates will be selected in case one of the 8 admitted students declines the offer of dual degree admission.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS:

- What if I took my pre-requisites at another school?
 - Schedule an appointment with the Student Success Specialist to have an informal credit evaluation done. However, it is strongly recommended that you apply and submit official transcripts to UNM so an official ruling is made. We welcome students from all schools to apply to our nursing program.
- Is A & P Lab required?
 - No.
- I tested out of MATH 1215 and MATH 1220. Do I still have to take it?
 - No.
- Will I have to go to Albuquerque for any part of the dual degree BSN at UNM-Gallup?
 - No. Some of your courses from Albuquerque will be online, some will be offered through an online video platform.
- I am completing the last of my pre-reqs this semester. Can I still apply for next semester's admission to the BSN?
 - Yes, you can. You should contact the Student Success Specialist as soon as possible to make sure you are on track to apply for the following semester.
- How can I figure out my pre-req GPA?
 - UNM School of Business offers a great online GPA calculator. It can be found at: <https://mba.mgt.unm.edu/admissions/gpa-calculator.asp>
- What can I do if my pre-req GPA is not high enough?
 - Students have the option to re-take a course. We will accept the higher grade to factor into your pre-requisite GPA.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS:

- I have completed my associates degree in Nursing already. Can I apply to this BSN program?
 - No. You may apply to an 'RN to BSN' program. UNM offers one online. Here is the link: <https://rnbsnonline.unm.edu/programs/rn-to-bsn.aspx>
- I passed the test and met the pre-req GPA. How do I apply?
 - You will be contacted by the Student Success Specialist from UNM-G and an admissions advisor from UNM College of Nursing.
- If I don't get in, can I reapply? And, do I have to take the ATI TEAS test again?
 - Yes, we encourage students to reapply if they did not get in. ATI TEAS scores are good for 1 year.
- What can I do to prepare for the ATI TEAS?
 - We encourage students to use ATI TEAS study books. You can purchase these in our UNM-G bookstore or with an online vendor.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS:

- I took PSY220 (Developmental Psychology) instead of HCHS123. Do I still have to take HCHS123?
 - No. We will accept PSY220 as a substitute for HCHS123. However, we prefer students take HCHS123.
- Do I need CNA experience before I can apply?
 - No
- Will I get my degree from UNM-Gallup or from UNM College of Nursing?
 - You will earn an Associates Degree in Nursing from UNM-Gallup and a Bachelors Degree in Nursing from UNM CON at the same time.
- How can I get help with financial aid for the dual degree BSN?
 - Once you are admitted to the UNM-Gallup dual degree BSN program, we will get you in touch with a BSN financial aid officer in Albuquerque.
- What does 'Student Choice' mean for the NM Common Core?
 - UNM now allows students to choose which common core classes they want to take. It is not longer prescribed as before.
