The Zollinger Library is preparing for its 3rd Annual Book Giving Tree

The Book Giving Tree will be decorated on Monday, November 11 with snowman ornaments. A colorful sticker on the ornament will identify an age range for a book donation, including for adults over 17.

Please stop by the Zollinger Library and take an ornament from the tree then acquire a book for a local child or adult as you Christmas and Holiday shop this year. Gently used books in good, clean condition will also be accepted.

Drop book(s) off in the Zollinger Library by 5:00 PM, Tuesday, December 3 with the ornament attached. This year the books will be decorated with festive holiday ribbon.

The books will be gifted to attendees at UNM—Gallup’s annual Holiday in New Mexico celebration to be held in Gurley Hall, Thursday, December 5 from 5:00—8:00 PM.

Happy Holidays!
