Happy Thanksgiving!

Dr. James Malm

“Showing gratitude is one of the simplest yet most powerful things humans can do for each other.”

Here's wishing you the happiest of Thanksgiving Days. I hope you enjoy the time with your family and friends in celebration of gratitude for each other and all of the other graces of your life.

I am grateful for all that you do to make this an exceptional learning environment for so many members of our community. I hope you are as proud of the work we do as I am and look forward to continuing our team's exploration of making this university the best it can be.

My family and I wish you great health and happiness in all things. Go Lobos!

Best regards, James.
