

Chancellor Weekly Brief – 2/14/2020 Dr. James Malm

UNMG WEEKLY ACTIVITY REPORT

We realized a 107% headcount at Census Day over the same time last year. This is great news, and a thank you to all who are working to fulfill our mission and to work toward our students' continued success.

UNM PRESIDENT'S GALLUP NEWS REPORT TO FEBRUARY UNM BOARD OF GOVERNORS MEETING

Our good news is traveling fast around the state. President Stokes asked me for a UNMG news update for her state of the university address to the trustees. For the third meeting in a row, we're highlighting our strong enrollment growth trends. UNMG has seen an increase in headcount for the last 6 consecutive semesters—up 14.15% compared to 3 years ago. We've also seen an increase in student credit hours over the last three years—up 7.9% over the same time period.

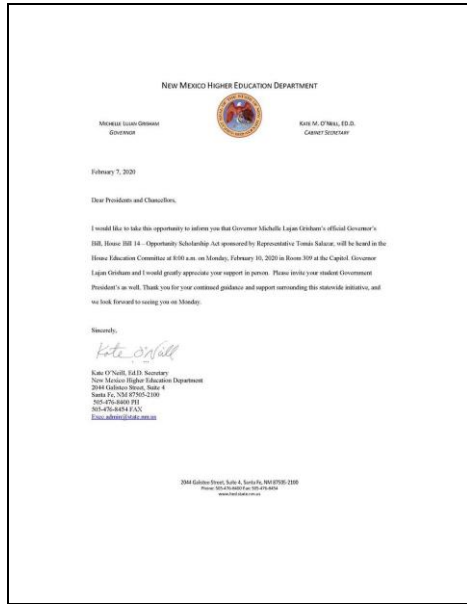

UNM-GALLUP ADVISORY BOARD

Our local advisory board is active and—as a reminder—open to the public. I collaborated with Chairman Richards on the Feb. 18 agenda. Highlights include an annual budget vote on the executive strategic budget for presentation to the UNM regents governing board in Albuquerque on March 6. And, a College of Education briefing on the baccalaureate degree completion programs extended to our campus this semester. For upcoming meetings, please check the schedule at <https://gallup.unm.edu/administration/localboard>. Again, meetings are open to one and all!

UNMG LEGISLATIVE ADVOCACY IN SANTA FE

I spent three more days in Santa Fe this week, where the Secretary of Higher Education invited me to stand in support of HB14 and SB323 and was happy to do it! I carried the sentiment that the strength of higher education in New Mexico will be beneficial to our students at UNMG. Our advocacy in Santa Fe is important to our mission, and it's my pleasure to work with our state officials on behalf of our campus.
