The UNM Gallup strategic plan is a living document whose existence depends on regular assessment of goals, weaknesses, opportunities and environmental factors. Please join this interactive presentation of recent environmental scanning and program prioritization projects that will drive a strategic plan refresh.

Sack Lunch Superstars

Wednesday, August 15th, 12:00 —1:00 p.m.

1) Books are Just the Beginning: Library Resources and Services. Library Computer Lab

Cecilia Stafford, Director, Zollinger Library
James Fisk, Public Services Librarian

The library staff will review services available to students, faculty and staff. Additionally, they will give a 'tour' of the new library home page, 'show off' the Digital New York Times which came online late last Spring, and introduce a digital product, new to our campus, Credo Reference.

2) Each of Us Defines All of Us: ADA/FERPA at UNM-G. SSTC 172

Jayme McMahan, Director of Student Affairs
Mary Lou Mraz, ARC, Student Success Specialist
Suzette Wyaco, Enrollment Manager

Faculty and staff should know the basics of the Americans with Disabilities Act in terms of history, definitions, policies and where to go for answers. FERPA is the federal law that protects access and disclosure of student records. Learn the "ins and outs" of educational records, student rights and how to protect your students and yourself.
