SUMMARY FROM GOVERNOR’S COVID-19 UPDATE:

The governor’s weekly COVID-19 update is in progress. Here is a summary of what has been discussed so far:

- Slope of cases over the past three weeks is increasing, 4-day trend of positive cases is increasing.
- Spread rate is increasing in 4 of 5 NM regions. Northwest region is increasing slower than other 4 regions seeing increases
- We are above our ‘Gating Target’ with a spread rate of 1.12; target is below 1.0
- Testing 5,000/day
- Hospitalizations are down (good)
- PPE supply remains solid
- Texas, Arizona impacting New Mexico numbers—people traveling to those states and back into New Mexico.
- We are no longer improving—we must remain vigilant and reopen slowly and gradually based on our data.
  o Stay at home
  o Wash hand, clean surfaces, cough into tissue/elbow
  o Everyone needs to wear face coverings in public o Maintain social distancing (minimum 6 feet)
- Keep making progress if:
  o Do your part – wear a mask, avoid groups
  o Support businesses adhering to COVID-safe practices
  o State keeps testing widely and isolating positive cases
- State’s Phase 2 Reopening is on hold

NAVAJO NATION WEEKEND LOCKDOWN:
A reminder that the Navajo Nation has implemented its 57-hour weekend lockdown that begins tomorrow night at 8 p.m. and is in effect through 5:00 a.m. on Monday, June 29.

UNM-GALLUP LIMITED OPERATIONS CONTINUE (REMINDER):
We are continuing our period of limited operations until further notice with remote work and learning within our assigned employee tier system. Telecommuting remains our default for the majority of UNM-Gallup faculty, staff, and students. All summer courses remain online. And, meetings must take place remotely whenever possible. Campus buildings will remain locked with no public access. We have a few essential Tier 1 employees who will have access to facilities, but we will continue to limit access to campus facilities.
