UNM-GALLUP LIMITED OPERATIONS:

Today’s COVID-19 operational status report for the UNM-Gallup campus:

- We remain under our limited operations.
- UNM-Gallup facilities are accessible by authorized Tier 1 personnel only. All other personnel should continue working remotely until further notice.
- The fitness trail remains open; a face mask or covering is required while exercising. Trail equipment remains closed.
- Zollinger Library: Online services, scanning, and curbside pickup is available. Request a Service here.
- Bookstore: Curbside pickup begins on Monday, Aug. 3. Fall 2020 financial aid charging begins on Tuesday, Aug. 4.
- Daily self-reporting policy remains in effect. If you need to come to campus, please coordinate access to a building with your supervisor and campus police—and be sure to respond to the daily COVID-19 self-reporting email that all UNM-Gallup personnel receive each morning from the main campus.

GOVERNOR’S UPDATE 7.30.2020:

New information from the governor’s update this afternoon on Facebook:

- 7-day average of daily COVID-19 positive cases has generally stabilized; the good news is the curve is not going up at this time.
- The number of hospitalizations (defined as people with COVID in a hospital) today is at 157 people with 6 additional deaths related to this virus.
- Current gating criteria places New Mexico in the ‘uncontrolled spread’ category.
- Spread of COVID-19 is currently at 1.09 (target is 1.05 or less).
- Testing is at 7,897 per day (target is 5,000 per day).
- Contact tracing is at 32 hours (target is 24 hours).
- PPE supply is on target at a 7-day supply.
- ICU bed capacity is 245 (target is 439 or less).
- Symptomatic patients should isolate for at least 10 days and resolution of fever for at least 24 hours.
- Extended Public Health Emergency extended for 30 days:
  - Occupancy restrictions for businesses, houses of worship continue
  - Mass gatherings prohibited
  - Mask or face covering requirement for all remains in place
  - State can potentially reduce occupancy restrictions in September
  - Goal: Reduce spread
COVID TESTING AT UNM-GALLUP:

The New Mexico Department of Health continues COVID testing through August at UNM-Gallup’s Lions Hall parking lot every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. Pre-registration is preferred but not required at cvtestreg.nmhealth.org.

UNM-GALLUP BOOKSTORE OFFERS LAPTOP OPTION (REMINDER):

Many thanks to our bookstore for researching and finding a new option for our students to purchase a laptop for their courses as we begin the fall semester on August 17. Students can purchase the HP Pavilion Touchscreen 2-in-1 notebook from August 4 through August 11. The notebook is priced at $785 for UNM-Gallup students—and they may use financial aid to make the purchase after contacting the bursar’s office for pre-authorization. Please visit the Gallup.UNM.edu/bookstore for curbside pickup and ordering details.

UNM HR ‘BRINGING BACK THE PACK’ ONLINE TRAINING (REMINDER):

As we implement our phased reopening plan and prepare for the fall semester, please remember that UNM Human Resources has assigned ‘Bringing Back the Pack’ online training. There are 7 modules within this training video and to complete takes a little over 20 mins. This training is required of all employees before they return to work on campus and has been automatically assigned in Learning Central. See: https://bringbackthepack.unm.edu/
