UNM-GALLUP LIMITED OPERATIONS DAILY UPDATE:

WELCOME BACK, STUDENTS!

Today’s COVID-19 operational status report for the UNM-Gallup campus:

- We remain under our limited operations. Classes tomorrow (Tuesday, 8/18) will be held remotely with the exception of a few Health Science courses. Students – please be in contact with your instructor(s) via UNM Learn.
- UNM-Gallup facilities are accessible by authorized Tier 1 personnel only. All other personnel should continue working remotely until further notice.
- The fitness trail remains open; a face mask or covering is required while exercising. Trail equipment remains closed.
- Zollinger Library: Online services, scanning, and curbside pickup is available. Request a Service here. UNM-G community members can request an appointment here.
- Bookstore: Curbside pickup runs through August 31.
- Daily self-reporting policy remains in effect. If you need to come to campus, please coordinate access to a building with your supervisor and campus police—and be sure to respond to the daily COVID-19 self-reporting email that all UNM-Gallup personnel receive each morning from the main campus. Face masks are required on campus at all times.

Updated Data (8/16) from COVIDACTNOW.org:

MCKINLEY COUNTY DAILY NEW CASE PER 100K POPULATION -

Over the last week, McKinley County, New Mexico has averaged 11 new confirmed cases per day (15.4 for every 100,000 residents). Over the next year, this translates to around 4,000 cases and an estimated 20,000 infections (28.1% of the population).
Please be sure to follow UNM-Gallup on social media (@UNMGallup). Our Facebook, Instagram and Twitter accounts are great sources for updates, announcements, and other campus information.

UNM FALL 2020 CLASS DELIVERY EXPLAINER VIDEO:

Here is a great resource published by UNM that explains Fall 2020 class delivery changes. Remember that data, published guidelines, and other resources will continue to drive our decisions and may impact course delivery in the coming months. Here is a resource guide developed by UNM-G student affairs for students as we begin the fall semester.

VIRTUAL TOWN HALL – HOUSING ASSISTANCE & SHELTERING RESPONSE ASSISTANCE:

The New Mexico Department of Workforce Solutions (NMDWS) is hosting a series of virtual town hall discussions. Tomorrow’s (Tuesday, August 18) session focuses on rent and housing assistance for individuals impacted by COVID-19. NMDWS has joined with the Office of the Lieutenant Governor, Mesilla Valley Community of Hope, and the University of New Mexico School of Law to discuss issues facing renters, homeowners, and homeless New Mexicans. Topics include programs available for housing assistance, tenant services, and steps to take if facing a possible eviction due to missed rental payments as a result of the pandemic.
COVID TESTING AT UNM-GALLUP (REMANDER):

The New Mexico Department of Health continues COVID testing through August at UNM-Gallup’s Lions Hall parking lot every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. Pre-registration is preferred but not required at cvtestreg.nmhealth.org.
